EXPLORE AN UNFORGETTABLE
DINING EXPERIENCE

"Sit, relax and enjoy the harvest of Newfoundland's own earth and waters." That's what the owners of the Norseman Restaurant and Gaia Art Gallery would like visitors to experience. Take in the fabulous view of the ocean, enjoy a glass of good wine by the fireplace, stroll down to the wharf and pick out your own lobster for supper (in season), or just savour the great cuisine that's been prepared to perfection. Then you will understand why it has been listed as one of the top restaurants in Newfoundland and Labrador.

The Lonely Planet

"Relish the butternut squash soup, peruse a few vegetarian options or sink your teeth into some caribou tenderloin at the Norseman Gallery and Café. This is probably the best Restaurant North of Gros Morne. Time your arrival for sunset - you won't regret it."

Sanfrancisco Chronicle

"A meal here can be a much appreciated Treat at the end of a long road. The Norseman is one of the better fine-Dining restaurants in the province, with a similarly stellar wine list."

Frommer's ★★★

"The Norseman is rated one of the better fine-dining restaurants in the province, and for good reason. It has a great selection of wines, the freshest seafood, and Newfoundland game. You can actually visit the wharf to pick out your own lobster (in season), and your drinks will be served with genuine iceberg ice. There's a dinner theater during July and August, every Tuesday and Friday at 7pm."
